

Civil Rights slam from the 60s

by 3B

Black people are segregated by the police
This, not a proof of justice
Colored people are not allowed to school,
'cause they have to respect the rules.
Everybody needs to have liberty,
Everybody needs to have equality.
I want people to share the dream,
So we can all sing the USA anthem.

Raphaël, Raphaël, Arthur

One Land, two hands;
"I have a dream",
Everybody screams.
We go, all of us,
At the front of the bus
For the revolution;
This is evolution
Our children
Sing for the movement
The Glory has come
Justice is now.

Aaron , Allan, Maxence, Noa

Glory for people
Glory equality,
Glory humanity.
We will be prosperous
Win our fight
Let be justice
And we will be the King.

Mahamadou

Martin Luther King is a minister,
Protects black people from racial discrimination;
Ruby Bridges, the first black girl to go to a public school.
The fight against racial segregation; a glory for the United States.

Rosa Parks has marked history because she hasn't given up her seat on the bus.

Jade, Cathleen, Sarah

Everyday, black people are crying
Because some of them are dying.
White people are lost in the darkness,
They cannot find the exit
Because their door is of a different color.

Matthieu, David

No to racism,
No to violence,
Glory, Martin Luther King.
Glory, Rosa Parks.
Stop violence,
Stop discrimination.
